Proceedings: (IN CHAMBERS) ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE FOR FAILURE TO PROSECUTE

On July 18, 2022, Plaintiff, appearing pro se, filed this civil lawsuit seeking review of a decision of the Commissioner of the Social Security. (Dkt. No. 1.)

On October 26, 2022, a Case Management Order was issued. (Dkt. No. 9.) Pursuant to the Case Management Order, Plaintiff was to serve the summons and complaint on the Defendant promptly in accordance with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(i) and 20 C.F.R. § 423.1. Plaintiff was further ordered to file an appropriate proof of service of the summons and complaint on the Defendant within thirty (30) days from the date of the Case Management Order. Accordingly, Plaintiff was to have filed a proof of service no later than November 28, 2022. To date, no proof of service has been filed and no request for an extension has been made.

Plaintiff is hereby ordered to show cause in writing why this case should not be dismissed for failure to prosecute and obey Court orders by no later than February 14, 2023. In response to this order, a proof of service may be filed, or Plaintiff may file a statement with the Court explaining why he has failed to properly serve the summons and complaint on the Defendant in accordance with the Case Management Order and specify a date by which one will be filed. If Plaintiff has decided to no longer pursue this case, he may file a notice of dismissal pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(a)(1)(A).
